

REDDAM HOUSE

BRIEF MISSION STATEMENT

Reddam House is committed to excellence as we believe that we have a responsibility to develop young people who are proud of their education, their culture and their country.

We look upon the ripple of excellence in education as our investment in the future as we believe that education is the catalyst for personal growth, development and achievement in a global world.

Reddam House is a non-denominational, co-educational through school from age 1 - 18
